The Jewish Guild for the Blind is a nonprofit, non-sectarian agency serving people of all ages who are visually impaired, blind, and multi-disabled. The Guild offers a broad range of programs that include: medical, vision, low vision, psychiatric, and rehabilitative services, managed long-term care, day health programs, schools and educational training programs for independent living.

In addition, The Guild's internet radio reading service, InTouch Networks, and SightCare (its vision care education and training program) address the special needs of thousands of people nationwide.

The Guild's mission is to assist people who are blind or visually impaired, and who may have additional disabilities, achieve lives of dignity and independence.

Donors to The Jewish Guild for the Blind support these efforts.
